

While working on this assignment, I could have reduced the amount of time I spent on it by starting the assignment earlier and taking better notes in class.

I'm not sure what the staff could have done to improve my learning experience with this homework. Perhaps having smaller checkpoints would encourage incremental learning.

I really enjoyed the level of creative control given in this assignment. It was fun to design a class entirely by myself.